If you have already submitted the documents to the school,
you do not need to submit them again this time.

[3. Regarding the Income Status of the Parent(s)/Guardian(s), etc.]

(1) Classification of the period for which you intend to check mark in one of the boxes.

Place a check mark (✓) in one of the boxes.

☒ April–June (attach the previous fiscal year's tax certificate, etc.)

☐ July–June of the following year (attach the current fiscal year's tax certificate, etc.)

(2) The status of the parent(s)/guardian(s), etc. at the time of application or reporting, and the tax certificate, etc. to be attached, are as follows.

(Please place a check mark in one of boxes next to ① to ⑧ below.)

(2)-1 The tax certificate, etc. of the following

Place a check mark (✓) in one of the boxes next to ① to ⑧.

①	☒	For two persons with parental authority When the student is a minor (under 18) and there are two persons with parental authority (parents).
②	☐	For one person with parental authority (Please place a check mark in one of boxes next to (a) to (c).) (If the person with parental authority is a child guidance center director or the head of a child welfare facility exercising parental authority temporarily, please place a check mark in one of boxes next to ⑤ to ⑧.)
		☐ (a) When one of the persons with parental authority is a spouse eligible for tax deduction, and it is clear that even if the income-based portion of municipal resident tax were levied, it would not affect the income-limit requirement or the additional-payment classification.
		☐ (b) When one of the persons with parental authority is not levied the income-based portion of municipal resident tax, in cases such as they did not reside in Japan on the tax assessment date.
		☐ (c) • When there is only one person with parental authority due to divorce, bereavement, etc. • When there are persons with parental authority but, due to unavoidable family circumstances, the tax certificate, etc. of one of them cannot be attached, etc.
③	☐	Guardian(s) of a minor person(s) When there is no person with parental authority and a guardian of a minor has been appointed. (If multiple guardians of a minor have been appointed, for all of them. However, a guardian that is a corporation, or one designated to exercise only authority over property, is excluded.)
⑤	☐	For one primary earner (Please place a check mark in one of boxes next to (a) to (c).)
		☐ (a) When the student became an adult while enrolled, one of the parents is a spouse eligible for tax deduction, and it is clear that even if the income-based portion of municipal resident tax were levied, it would not affect the income-limit requirement or the additional-payment classification.
		☐ (b) When one of the primary earners is not levied the income-based portion of municipal resident tax, in cases such as they did not reside in Japan on the tax assessment date.
		☐ (c) • When the student is a minor but has no person with parental authority or guardian of a minor; • When the student was an adult at the time of enrollment but has a primary earner; • When the student is an adult and had only one person with parental authority while a minor; • When the student is an adult and had no person with parental authority or guardian of a minor while a minor; etc.

⑥	☐	The student themselves • When none of the persons with parental authority, guardian of a minor, or primary earner exists and the student has reached adulthood; • When the student is a minor but earns enough income to be levied the income-based portion of municipal resident tax; etc.

(2)-2 For the following reason, no tax certificate, etc. is attached.

⑦	☐	When the person subject to income verification is the student themselves (e.g., when none of the persons with parental authority, guardian of a minor, or primary earner exists), but the student is a minor and does not earn enough income to be levied the income-based portion of municipal resident tax.
⑧	☐	When all of the persons with parental authority, the guardian of a minor, the primary earner, and the student themselves are not levied the income-based portion of municipal resident tax, in cases such as they did not reside in Japan on the tax assessment date.
