
A girl passed away lonely

6th August, Hiroshima, A schoolgirl, 13 years old

Two hundred and twenty mobilized first-year schoolgirls were bombed out when they tore down buildings in the city near the Dobashi Bridge. All of them died.

Yoko, the only child of her parents, was severely burnt all over her body, and carried to a first-aid station.

"Ouch, it hurts! - Water, water!"

"Mom!"

"Mom, are you not here yet?"

"Rub my chest, please!"

"Grandma, please hold my hands!"

She was suffering. Around eleven o'clock in the evening of August the 6th she died lonely at the age of thirteen.

She could not meet her mother who finally arrived the next day. She was all alone.
