Nearby Sightseeing Spot

Lake Ashi Sightseeing Cruise

The Lake Ashi Pleasure Boat began operation in 1920, originally as a catamaran. It currently operates as a schedule ferry between the four ports of Hakone Sekishoato, Motohakone, Hakone-en, and Kojiri, and you can also enjoy riding it as a pleasure boat and getting off at the same port that you boarded at.

Hakone Shrine

In the past, Hakone Shrine was once a place of worship for the Kanto's region local deity, Hakone Daigongen. 2,400 years ago, during the reign of Emperor Kosho, the 5th emperor of Japan, Shosen-shonin began to worship Mount Hakone's Mount Komagatake (the original location of this shrine) as a holy place, and since then, it has been a great sacred mountain in the Kanto region.
