Hakone Yumoto Onsen Street

Explanation of
Tourist Attraction

Hakone hot springs village is one of Japan's oldest and best tourist destinations with a history dating back 1200 years. During the Edo period, the common people developed hot springs for sightseeing. There are 20 hot spring spots in Hakone. Spring quality and efficacy vary. Hakone Yumoto is also called a gateway to Hakone. They opened the bathhouse during the Nara period, making it the oldest hot spring resort in Hakone. More than 40 traditional guesthouses with delicious cuisine and beautiful bathhouses are lined up on the street.

Hakone Yumoto Hotaru Park

The local "Hakone Lightning Bug Association" has preserved and protected the lightning bugs. They fly every June, early in the month. The lightning bug numbers are gradually increasing, showing off their wonderful light dance in early June. The nearby hydrangeas add to the beautiful coloring.

OKADA MUSEUM OF ART

The museum is built on the site of the hotel "Kaika Tei" (about 6,300 m<sup>2</sup>) for Westerners that lived during the Meiji era. The total floor area of the building, consisting of five floors, is about 7,700 m<sup>2</sup>. The exhibition area is about 5,000 m<sup>2</sup>. In this large venue, works from ancient times to modern art are being displayed here. The pieces centered on Japan, China, and South Korea, were collected by Kazuo Okada, honorary director.
