Delicious confectionary brings happiness to everyone

Tivoli Yugawara Sweets Factory

Explanation of
Tourist Attraction

The only direct sales facility and factory visit site operated by Tivoli, a confectionary manufacturer that produces Japan's largest share of assorted gift cookies, that opened in November 2017. The theme of the facility is [A sweets factory to delight all five senses]. An observation window on the second floor allows visitors to watch the skilled staff performing intricate tasks and other aspects of the manufacturing process, including the clever movements of the robots, etc. Hands-on cookie-making experiences that small children can take part in are also available, which teaches them the fun of cooking-making, factory production, and lets them experience the deliciousness of freshly-baked cookies.
