The new ninja story of Hakone
NINJABUS

Explanation of Tourist Attraction

NINJABUS is a newly released amphibious bus operating around Lake Ashi. You will get a panoramic view of the natural landscape of Hakone from the middle of Lake Ashi, not just from the ground. Be guided around the attractions of Hakone by the lady ninja guide. This location can be accessed from two bus stops, Hakone-En and Moto-Hakone. If you ride from Moto-Hakone, you will also have the option to get off at Hakone-En.

selling point

Enter the lake with a splash directly from the road. You can really feel the lake's breeze, and enjoy the rich mountain scenery of Hakone.

Nearby Sightseeing Spot

Hakone-jinja Shrine

Hakone-jinja Shrine is revered as a special place to pray in the Kanto region. Since the holy priest Shosen was enshrined as the object of worship in Komagatake, Hakone during the reign of Emperor Koshu about 2,400 years ago, it has long been the most sacred site for mountain worship in the Kanto area.

Hakone-en Aquarium

Hakone-en Aquarium is the highest salt water aquarium in Japan, at 723 meters above sea level. It has 3 sections, salt water, fresh water, and "Baikal Seal Square". It's the only place in Japan with a Baikai Seal show. Enjoy the cute waddle and lovable faces of the seals up close.
