Kamakura Mononofu Tour

Explanation of Tourist Attraction

The Kamakura Mononofu Tai (Samurai Squad) is involved in activities to promote Kamakura via praying for the repose of all souls that rest in peace here, and establishing connections into the future. As part of these activities, they engage in Kamakura PR by dressing up as armored warriors together with visitors attending various events, and hold sightseeing tours of Kamakura City. This involves dressing up in the costumes of samurai warriors from the Kamakura period and walking around the city. A very enjoyable tour in which visitors become the star attraction as they stroll around the famous parts of the city while dressed in authentic Kamakura Samurai armor, the garments worn by ancient nobility, the garments worn by princesses and other such costumes.

Komyo-ji Temple (head temple of Jodo sect)

Komyoji Temple is one of relatively few Jodo sect temples in Kamakura. It is noted for lotus flowers that garnish the temple garden with color when in bloom in summer.

Shonan Monorail

A safe and high-speed railway that travels from Ofuna (Kamakura City) to Shonan Enoshima (Fujisawa City) over the harsh ups-and-downs between the mountains and the ocean, and alongside twisting roads. Experience a ride on one of the world's rare suspension railways.
