Experience making wagashi (traditional Japanese confectionery) with an expert

Wagashi Shop Mirakuan
(workshops for making traditional Japanese sweets)

At Mirakuan, we offer wagashi such as “Tangerine Monaka” and seasonal sweets made by our experts. We also offer a variety of sweets available only in our store as well as tea breaks for visitors. Particularly popular in our store is the workshops for making Japanese sweets. Our expert will teach you how to make wagashi. You can take it home or eat it in our store. As part of your tour of Yugawara hot springs, why not try making some Japanese sweets?

We offer workshops for hand-making different Japanese sweets every month, so you can enjoy the classes every time you visit.

Okuyugawara’s Autumn Foliage
Enjoy the beautiful autumn foliage in Okuyugawara. During the season, visitors can enjoy quiet tea time at the tea ceremony house designed by a famous architect.

Manyo Park
A number of plants mentioned in the Manyoshu poems are grown here. The park also features Manyo-tei, a building made to resemble Manyo-era architecture, a stone monument engraved with the only poem about hot springs in Manyoshu, and a monument dedicated to Doppo Kunikida who wrote novels that took place in Yugawara, among other things.
